more Japs" until the empire was crushed.

In the Seventh Division cemetery alongside the other men whom he led and who died on Okinawa, the men of the Tenth Army buried their leader today, with full military honors.

At 9 o'clock, Okinawa time, they lowered his body into the ground. A bugler played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and the men of the Tenth Army buried their leader today, with full military honors.

Marine General Roy S. Geiger—the man he wanted to take over—had been killed. The general died of wounds he received in the fighting. The general died of wounds he received in the fighting. The general died of wounds he received in the fighting.

Then it happened. A Japanese shell came screaming in, bounced off a rock, sending murderous splinters whirling through the air. One of those—a big one—hit General Buckner in the chest. That was it. He died.

In headquarters, in supply dumps, along the few quiet spots of the battlefield, Buckner's death was met with grief—awakening stories about him this morning—saying like the one about a Japanese private who gave the General a private burial. "Po" Dawg, the General looked him up and down. And then Buckner, never asked "Po" Dawg what he did when he was a civilian.

Said "Po" Dawg: "I was the best bugler in our county, sir." Said Buckner: "I was the best myself." And he died. "Do your stuff."

So Buckner and "Po" Dawg—taking turns—made their best and loudest call ring up and down the beach. And then the soldiers—a handful of lonely men who expected the Japs to land at any time—cheered and laughed. Their morale was better after that day.

And those soldiers who knew General Buckner in Alaska are telling other years about him this morning. They're telling about how the "Old Man" used to get up in the morning, to go to a creek near his tent, take the ice and draw himself a bucket full of water.

The troops would climb out of their beds, shake with cold and carry the water. And then they'd look over at Gen. Buckner, strapped to the wall, shivering in the water, and they'd say: "That's the kind of general Buckner was, a leader his men called the 'Iron Man'." Buckner had a frost-bitten favorite.

"Gentlemen, may you walk through the gates of Tokyo." And only a few days ago, Buckner said he could think of no greater privilege than to lead his men through the gates of Tokyo.

Well, the general will never walk through the gates of Tokyo. But some of his men will. And they'll think of the general who led them back to the island where he cleared the Japs from the island of Japan and met a soldier's death—the kind he would have wanted—doing it.

At Washington, War Secretary Stimson said that in the death of Gen. Buckner "the United States has lost one of its most skilled and aggressive field commanders."

Prime Minister Likely to Take Seat in Ottawa

King to run in that constituency which is heavily Liberal. Strong objections by western Liberals to the caucus over the proposal as well as Mr. King's personal determination not to run away from the fight in Prince Albert.

ROUSING MAJORITY

It turned out the Liberal candidate in Russell won by a rousing majority of more than two to one over his nearest contender, the Progressive Conservative.

A stronger reason, however, that Mr. King may choose to have his name put up in East Ottawa is that East Ottawa, also overwhelmingly Liberal in complexion, is his residence and both the Liberals who fought each other that day in the general election are to take to the streets to help to elect Mr. King.

There is little doubt but that Mr. King would receive an acclamation in East Ottawa as any candidate other than a Liberal would stand no chance whatever in a contest. This was demonstrated by the fact of the heavy Liberal vote in June 11 in that seat. More than 10,000 votes were cast for the winner, J. T. Richard, Liberal, and another 5,000 for his Liberal opponent, the Progressive Conservative.

It appears, therefore, that the national capital will get the honor of being represented by the prime minister, a situation which has not existed since the regime of Prime Minister Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

It has been said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when he was in the House of Commons, was not quite correct. In his day, the Ottawa City Council consisted of 10 members. It had been tradition that the Ottawa City Council consisted of 10 members. It had been tradition that the Ottawa City Council consisted of 10 members.

As a matter of fact, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when he was in the House of Commons, was not quite correct. In his day, the Ottawa City Council consisted of 10 members. It had been tradition that the Ottawa City Council consisted of 10 members. It had been tradition that the Ottawa City Council consisted of 10 members.

Subsequently, during the Conservative administration of Hon. R. B. Bennett, a redistribution of seats in Ottawa City Council was made. The Ottawa City Council now consists of 10 members.

Except for giving him the personal privilege of finding a new seat announcement of service vote did not alter the cabinet picture. They merely let him know for that he can count on the ministers he had last week.

SEVERAL PROBLEMS

The prime minister's cabinet problems include the desire to find a new minister of defence or a seat for Hon. C. McNaughton.

1. Finding a new minister of defence or a seat for Hon. C. McNaughton.

2. Finding a new postmaster general to replace Hon. W. P. Mulock, who stepped out, due to ill-health, just before the election.

3. Finding a new minister of national revenue and a new minister from New Brunswick or a seat for Hon. D. L. MacLean, defeated in the last election.

4. Finding a minister from Prince Edward Island.

In the course of meetings these problems he met it desirable to shift around some of the ministers already in the cabinet.

If Gen. McNaughton drops out of politics after his second attempt to win a seat, Hon. Douglas Abbott, a minister who handled army business at the short session of parliament last spring, may get the senior defence post or it may go to Mr. minister Gibson.

ANOTHER POSSIBILITY

There also is a possibility either army and navy or army and navy may be combined under one minister, either Mr. Abbott or C.O. Gibson, who naturally have difficulty in ascertaining quickly the true and potential meanings of the "vague" and "vague" clauses going into the charter.

The U.S. British, Russian, and Polish Air Forces are ranked as the top four Allied Air Forces in point of numbers of men serving in each.

ARMED FORCES' Vote Pleases CCF Chieftain

OTTAWA, June 18 (CP)—J. M. Goldwell, CCF leader, said today in a statement support given his party for the recent campaign.

With 38 members of the CCF representation in the new parliament, it falls a 100 per cent increase compared with its strength at the last election.

The statement continued: "The government failed to elect a clear majority, but with independent Liberal, Independent and Progressive (Communist) support, it will have no excuse for its failure to carry out the promised jobs for Canadians."

Record Flight Made by Aries

WINNIPEG, June 18 (CP)—The Royal Air Force plane Aries made a record flight from Winnipeg to London today.

The flight of the air force plane was considerably shorter of the west-coast record of 6,285 miles made by the Russian plane, the Grom, in a flight from Moscow to San Francisco, Calif., in 1937.

Tories Lose Seat 4 Constituencies Changed As Result of Service Vote; Prime Minister Loses Seat

The CCF raised its percentage from 15 to 16 on a combined vote of 80,778.

For the three major parties, the service vote was Liberal 118,337; Progressive Conservative 87,530; CCF 105,679. This showed a drop in percentages, compared with the combined total, from 26 and 28 to 26 and 28, respectively, for Liberals and Progressive Conservatives, and an increase from 15 to 22 per cent for the CCF.

The total changeover of only four seats was small in view of the many close races indicated by the civilian vote.

RECOUNTS PROBABLE

Close decisions remain scattered throughout the list and recount possibilities persist.

The two Liberal gains through the service vote came in Colchester-Barns in Nova Scotia and Victoria in British Columbia. Both were made from Progressive Conservative. Liberal losses were Prince Albert in the CCF, and Wellington North, Ontario, to the Progressive Conservatives.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King's defeat in a four-man contest was by 123 votes. He had a total of 262 on the civilian vote.

All other members of the Liberal cabinet whose election was indicated by the civilian ballot were re-elected, although some were defeated. Two cabinet members whose defeat already had been accepted on the civilian count—Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Revenue Minister MacLaren—were still on the outside.

McNAUGHTON THIRD

Gen. McNaughton was third on the service vote in the three-way contest in Qu'Appelle-Saskatchewan, won by Mrs. Gladys Strum, CCF. It was the same position he held on the civilian vote.

On the service vote Finance Minister Flaherty sharply increased his margin in Digby-Annapolis-Kings, Nova Scotia. Agriculture Minister Gardiner polled less than half the CCF service vote in Melville-Saskatchewan. Munitions Minister Howse trailed the CCF in Port Arthur by 70 votes but was far ahead on the combined count.

Hon. Ian Mackenzie, veterans affairs minister, was second to the CCF on the service vote in Vancouver Centre, where seven candidates were entered.

He finished with a combined vote of 866.

Except for Mr. King, all party leaders were re-elected. The service vote gave John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, a lead of 30 on the soldier count in Nepeawa, Manitoba. M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, increased his margin by 649 in Roseburg-Biggar, Saskatchewan. John Blackmore, Social Credit, and his designated successor as leader, Solon Low, were not in danger in Lethbridge and Peace River, both in Alberta, although Mr. Low was second to the CCF in the service vote. Mr. Blackmore increased his wide margin over his nearest opponent, a Liberal.

Since election day it has been accepted that the government would have the support of the seven independent Liberals—except on the question of conscription. Two of them have said since that they are straight Liberals.

In addition, three listed as independents are considered supporters of Mr. King—Hon. C. G. Power, former air minister, who has been mentioned for a cabinet post, and two who have stated they are King supporters.

Mr. King's personal defeat was his first since the general election of 1925 when he was defeated in York North. He was first elected to the Commons in 1900 in his native Waterloo North in Ontario. It was his first loss. He was defeated in 1911 and again in 1917, contesting York North in the 1917 war-time election.

He became national Liberal leader in 1919 and was successful in York North in 1921 but was defeated in that constituency in 1925. Shortly afterwards he won a by-election in Prince Albert and has carried that in every election since until his present defeat.

The "Drumstick Match" of 1902 was so-called because the holding end of the splint was treated with a fireproofing chemical to prevent burning beyond mid-point, thus saving suspicion if the user's attention was distracted.

Largest Number Bonus Claims From Ontario

OTTAWA, June 18.—(CP)—Ontario has the greatest number of bonus claims for family allowances, the health department said yesterday in announcing that the first allowance checks will be mailed "early in July."

So far, 1,246,661 claims have been registered, with 306,631 of them in Ontario. Quebec had the second largest registered with 271,110 and Saskatchewan third with 137,110.

Registrations in other provinces were: Alberta 91,829; British Columbia 90,411; Manitoba 74,841; Nova Scotia 66,443; New Brunswick 54,330 and Prince Edward Island 11,704.

The size provincial allowance officers report that approximately 2,100 applications now are being received daily.

TAX DEDUCTIONS

Income tax officials said that a new scale of tax deductions for persons receiving the allowance would become effective on salaries paid after July 15.

In a notice mailed to employers, the revenue department said that from salaries and wages paid after July 15, employers are required to deduct, in addition to the usual table of deductions, additional amounts to avoid duplication of benefits for family allowances and income tax.

The additional tax deductions are to be made on a percentage basis, based on the table of benefits under the family allowances act.

Mayor of Calgary Calls For New Work On Post-War Orders

TORONTO, June 18.—(CP)—Mayor Andrew Dawson of Calgary yesterday told the Federation of Canadian Mayors meeting here that unless a program of reconstruction is adopted by the federal and provincial governments during the depression years, the plans of municipalities in reconstruction will be hampered if not rendered impossible.

"We must see to it that we are not again placed in a position similar to that which existed during the depression when our cities and towns were forced to assume a considerable proportion of the cost of unemployment relief and had little or no voice in deciding just what should be done," the mayor said.

In a discussion of municipal insurance brought forward by city Commissioner J. M. Hodgson of Edmonton, Mayor Robert Saunders of Toronto said he was not convinced municipal self-insurance is desirable.

Sailor Disappears From Moored Ship

NEW YORK, June 18.—(CP)—Police last night searched New York harbor for the body of Jerry Gibson, 19, Burnaby, B.C., seaman who dived off the freighter Rockwood Park while it was moored in Brooklyn yesterday, and failed to reappear. Gibson was a Royal Canadian Navy gunner.

U.S. Division has taken their spearheads to within 7,500 yards of the town of Negombo, population 7,000, in Ceylon, where they are expected to try another stand.

The 37th has advanced so rapidly behind its armored screen in the past few days that it has run off tactical maps faster than the Air Force can compile them.

The advance on Negombo was also reported going well, and the winding up of the Philippines campaign is definitely in sight.

WEATHER CLEARING

Meantime clearing weather enabled the Far Eastern Air Force to drop 500 tons of bombs on Keelung, Taiwan and Taini in Formosa, and all target areas were left blazing in spite of heavy anti-aircraft defenses which have been reinforced in the past week.

Japanese radio broadcasts picked up here indicate there is growing unrest in the Japanese homeland. One Japanese spokesman openly criticized the lack of Japanese enthusiasm for the war, and pointed out that defeat was inevitable if this attitude continued.

He again urged that peace talks and promised a Japanese offensive when "the time arrives."

Expanding preparations to repel the expected invasion of the Japanese mainland, the Tokyo newspaper Nippon Sangyo Keizai, said "total fortification of our homeland is being undertaken only as a prerequisite for the boldest positive offensive operation to be launched at the opportune moment."

DENY PEACE BID

Other Japanese propagandists denied the Japan was seeking peace and said there would be no unconditional surrender. "In the face of these Allied demands for unconditional surrender the Japanese people have no choice but to take death," said one Tokyo commentator.

The desperate attempts being made to whip the civilian morale into line for an all-out defense of the homeland indicates a track-up on the home front according to experts monitoring the broadcasts.

Japan will surrender unconditionally or be blown out of the war," was the uncompromising statement of a high Allied air commander.

Crops in South Show Promise Of Large Yield

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., June 18.—(CP)—The Lethbridge Herald in a crop report the overall picture in Southern Alberta is bright following a period of fair to heavy rainfall, with the southwest corner of the province showing the most in the province for moisture.

Warm, settled weather to bring steady rains and heavy needs. Southeast Alberta precipitation has been light and more rain is needed. Wheatberries there is up four to six inches. Ranges need much more rain.

All seeding has been done with the exception of acreage for feed. There is a probable five per cent reduction in wheat acreage.

ESTIMATE BEET CROP

Beet thinking has been proceeding between rains and between 40 and 50 per cent of the beets have been thinned. Sugar company officials expect 1,000,000 100-pound bags of sugar will be produced.

Cornery crops are making good growth and peas are now breaking into flower. Canaries will be ready about July 7. Beans will be ready about July 15.

Full ripe is reported headed out and is a promising crop. Livestock are fat as range conditions generally show splendid improvement due to soaking rains. Sheep shearing at the big range plants has been retarded by wet, cold weather and little wool has yet been moved out.

The closest contest of the whole election appeared to have been caused by the service vote in the Quebec constituency of Argenteau, where Independent Conservative G. H. Heon lost 121 to Liberal C. W. McRobb, but retained an edge of nine votes, 5,230 to 5,221, on the overall total.

Anglican Church Conversion Drive

LONDON, June 18.—(CP)—The Church of England's commission on evangelism called last night for "conversion of England to the Christian faith" and proposed a 1,000,000 (about $4,500,000) advertising campaign for the purpose.

The 1942 York South by-election, the soldier poll in that riding by nearly 400 votes but failed to overcome the 1,453 civilian-vote lead piled up by L. C. Cockerham, Progressive Conservative.

Willfrid (Bucko) McDonald, former National Hockey League rearguard, defended his right to a Liberal seat in the Commons by winning 21 votes on his Progressive Conservative rival. Rucko boosted his lead from 354 to 275.

Election Highlights

By The Canadian Press

The troops had a chance to express their views on four generals. Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, defence minister and former commander of the Canadian army overseas, ran last on the service vote in the three-sided Qu'Appelle contest, while the civilian-vote leader, Mrs. Gladys Strum of the CCF, increased her margin over Progressive Conservative E. Perley. Maj. Gen. G. C. Peakes, VC, former chief of the Pacific command, ran second to CCF candidate J. M. Thomas in Nanaimo but held the constituency for the Progressive Conservatives by virtue of his substantial lead on civilian votes.

Gen. E. W. Sanson and C. B. Price, who went overseas as brigadiers with the CCF in 1939, topped the service polls in York-Sunbury and Montreal St. Antoine-Westmount respectively, but failed to catch their Liberal opponents. Both ran as Progressive Conservatives.

Party leaders John Bracken of the Progressive Conservatives and M. J. Coldwell of the CCF both lengthened their lead on the service vote. In the three-man Nepeawa contest, Mr. Bracken increased his margin by 30 over Liberal P. D. MacKenzie, while in Roseburg-Biggar Mr. Coldwell added 649 votes to the lead he held over his Liberal opponent.

Bodies of six of the party were found by United States coastguard searchers in chilly Lake Ontario waters last night amid bits of charred wreckage. The fact all six were male and all were men that they could not survive the storm after leaving the boat. None of the bodies found showed evidence of burns.

Racket In Stocks

The operations of high pressure stock salesmen in Eastern Canada, particularly in Toronto, which have fallen under the criticism of American securities officials, have drawn attention to a serious Canadian problem. While the racket is confined to Toronto, the problem is national, and more than ever, it will be up to Alberta people, as well as Ontario people,
to investigate before they invest.

The racket, of course, is centered in Toronto, but securities commissioners in other provinces have been alerted to the public that stock was being promoted which was not authorized for sale in those provinces.

One of the contributing factors in Ontario has been the repeal of the Ontario Securities Act which was regarded by the mining industry as too restrictive. A new act was accordingly passed, and the legislature was dissolved before it was able to deal with it. Apparently there has been little enforcement of the securities laws
during the past several months.

The situation is regarded as so serious
that not only have American securities
officials called attention to the circumstances, but such prominent Canadian Premier Drew as the Montreal Gazette
have urged him to take immediate action against this organized banditry. Says the Gazette:

"Mining development and share purchases are at best highly speculative. But they should remain honest speculation, and not allowed to descend to sheer thievery under the sheltering laws
of Ontario."

There is no doubt that Ontario should take drastic and immediate action. Meanwhile investors in other provinces owe it to themselves, as always, to exercise unusual caution.

As a matter of fact, if the ordinary investor would subject every issue to careful scrutiny before he invests, the elimination of stock racketeers would be half accomplished. Honest security firms can help by emphasizing the warning.

The Man Behind The Guns

There are only two countries where the reception given to General Eisenhower at Washington will not arouse popular enthusiasm. In Germany and Japan the reception will be different. Elsewhere the acclaim will be echoed. In Allied states as a matter of course, since he led our armies to victory. But in the enemy states also, wherever freedom is valued, and where women breathe easier because the major partner in the Axis conspiracy has been rendered harmless.

The genius of General Eisenhower was not more shown by what he did than by what he dared. He went to Britain when that country was under the most serious threat of instant invasion of the continent. But he ignored the clamor and set tight for two years while the world waited for the perfected machinery for a blow that might be decisive. It took courage to do that while Russia was carrying the heavy end of the load and the world was waiting when the democracies would get into action on the western front.

When finally the blow was struck no body outside Germany knew what the effect would be. The invasion thrust was made where and when it was least expected, and there never was a chance that the invaders could be thrown out of France.
They had achieved the supposed impossible in gaining a foothold, and swept to the German border after Germany was over almost as fast as high-powered motor equipment could travel. Again the supposed impossible was accomplished, the reversed Maginot line after Germany was penetrated, the Rhine crossed, and Allied armies raced across Germany
in parallel columns.

This could not have been done without superior equipment and weight of manpower. But these alone could not have brought victory. That was the reason the cause they were directed by men who knew how—men chosen, inspired, and themselves directed, by General Eisenhower.

Poor Service To Poland

Fifteen of the sixteen Polish underground leaders who were placed on trial at Moscow pleaded guilty. Not all were charged with the same specific offences,
or type of offence, but they were all fiercely grouped under the heading of "directly or indirectly aiding the German adversary against the Red Army."

What is implied is that the leaders,
while fighting the Germans, were also laying plans to fight the Russians in the event the blue of countries which are thought would come after Germany was beaten. This runs parallel to the Nazi idea that the Allies would soon or later split on the "Bolshevik" issue, after Germany had joined the Reich to stop the Reds and to own border and prevent the spread of Moscow-directed communist activity over western Europe.

Further back, this idea was the basis

on which at the close of World War I a string of buffer states was set up as a barrier to Russian aggression and Russian influence, stretching from the Baltic Sea to the Black.

This historic background does not excuse the Polish leaders for the overt acts of treachery with which they were charged and to which they have paid guilty for these acts were committed while Russian forces were fighting to liberate Poland, and therefore constituted betrayals both of Russia and Poland. The betrayals does however make clear where the animating motive was. It was in herited from the Versailles conference, where the common belief was that western countries must guard themselves against encroachment by Russia.

The outcome of the trial will prejudice
the Polish question in advance of the Big Three conference at which that question is to be discussed. Russia can claim, and will claim, that the historic argument is
now reversed, that it now needs protection
against western Europe; and should therefore have a deciding voice in the set-up of the new Polish government. The self-condemned leaders have therefore done
poor service to Poland which they would
try to be independent in fact and in no
way within Moscow's sphere of influence.

The first peacetime cargo from Canada
has reached Norway, and it is announced that a regular Canada-Mexico steamship
service will be operating in two months.
These are hopeful signs that no time is to
be lost in getting the currents of international trade flowing. That will be all to the good.

The times and places of the trials of Germans and other Big shots may be fixed when the Big Three meet in Berlin.
That is the proper way to settle the matter. The offences of these men were committed while the Allies were fighting, and these should act together in deciding what charges are to be laid against them,
and where, when and by whom they are to be tried.

is to be discussed. Russia can claim, and
will claim, that the historic argument is
now reversed, that it now needs protection
against western Europe; and should therefore have a deciding voice in the set-up of the new Polish government. The self-
condemned leaders have therefore done
poor service to Poland which they would
try to be independent in fact and in no
way within Moscow's sphere of influence.

The first peacetime cargo from Canada

that a regular Canada-Mexico steamship
service will be operating in two months.
These are hopeful signs that no time is to
be lost in getting the currents of international trade flowing. That will be all to
the good.

DODGERS have won two out of three games played with the Athletics, has won two and lost one this season, but also has done relief work in two additional games. Hal has worked 26 2/3 innings, has allowed 21 hits, but only one earned run. He has struck out 27 and issued only four bases on balls.

Tommy Brant of Dodgers has appeared in two games to date, one of which was marked up on the credit side and the other not so far as he was concerned. Tommy has pitched 11 innings, has given up one earned run and eight hits and has two strikeouts. He has given out eight free passes to four batters.

FORMER MONTREALER—Leo Peto mentioned in connection with the rumored NHL entry from Philadelphia is a former Montrealer now residing in New York who may build a new arena in the Quaker City by 1937.

Peto, a director in the Arena company which operates the Canada team, was interviewed by the Quaker Senior Hockey League and in football. He is one of the owners of a large Canadian foundry and steel plant in Montreal.

Eric Geddes Homers Combines Trim Leafs 12-3 For 8th Straight Victory

Led by Eric Geddes who hit a home run and a triple in four times at bat and Benny Grabow, who collected three singles in the same number of trips to the plate, Combines whipped Maple Leafs 12-3 in Monday night's City Junior Football League contest at Kingsway Park.

The win for the Combines boosted their first-place margin to a game and a half over the second-place South Side Athletics.

Geddes' circuit 'hog' to left field started off a seven-run inning for the winners which decided the game. A triple by Alex Romanik, singles by Grabow and Nester Ludek, two walks, a fielder's choice, two errors, two putouts and a wild pitch accounted for the other six runs in the same session.

Bob English hurled a nice game for the winners, who marked up their eighth straight victory, in holding the jittery Maple Leafs to seven safe blows.

Ken McAuley's Girls Move to Within Half Game of First Place

Mortons Edge Out Fat Fastballers 5-4

Kate Lyons Steals Home For Winner

Mortons moved to within a half game of the leading Fat Fastballers in the City Girls' Fastball League Monday night when they rallied for three runs in the eighth inning to edge out Army and Navy Pats 5-4 at Kingsway Park.

Danault started off the winning spurge when she singled to second base. A one base blow by Milie McNeill sent Danault to third and then a safety by Kate Lyons drove her in and sent McAuley to third. Lyons stole second and then left fielder "Kelly" McDonald batted one down to short for the single, sending McAuley home on the play to take up the deciding run.

Then came an attempted squeeze play by the Pats. As McDonald was trying to steal second, catcher Lucella McNeill threw to shortstop Thora Stewart, who forced McDonald at second but that was only the second out and Lyons raced home on the play to chalk up the deciding run.

The game was a real thriller right from the start. Pats took the lead in the half of the first and three Mortons came back with a pair in the second half of the same frame. Pats' second out was shortstop Thora Stewart's single to shortfield and Pats' second out was shortstop Thora Stewart's single to shortfield and Pats' second out was shortstop Thora Stewart's single to shortfield.

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy

SCHENECTADY, N.Y., June 18.—(AP)—With a mighty assist from "Dapper Dan" Tony Galento, the city of Schenectady—one of America's hottest sports spots—has rolled out the red plush carpet to welcome the dawn of the new golden era in sports.

Schenectady, a metropolis of more than 100,000, and one of the country's busiest manufacturing centers, took week-end time off from the war effort to notify the baseball world, for example, that it has no pretensions but club. And that it will co-operate wholeheartedly with any major league outfit that might wish to establish a farm team there.

It is in the feeling of fraternity that important boys are being in the offering in the ballcock of General Electric and American Electric.

And for the benefit of the nation's high schools, assurance was given that Mount Pleasant High would continue to turn out its great basketball teams, and that the school would still produce its famed crop of cross-country runners.

NEWLY-ORGANIZED CLUB
SCHENECTADY led America's sports world to believe that it was preparing for the big post-war sports boom Saturday night at the first annual dinner of its newly-organized Dapper Dan club—modeled after the famous D.D.'s of Pittsburgh.

Virtually every member of the Dapper Dan is a person who is prominent in sports, in his community at least—and who will help to stimulate sports interest in the community.

Galento, former heavyweight challenger, was principal attraction at the dinner in Schenectady's Dan's Hall. The Orange N.Y. local proprietor made his speech without a two-minute Tony offer to make even greater personal sacrifice for the Dapper Dan. He said he was willing to fight "that bum" Joe Louis again for nothing in Schenectady, with entire proceeds of the fight to go to widows and orphans of servicemen lost in battle.

DESERVE LOT OF CREDIT
GALENTO told the Dapper Dan, "You guys deserve a lot of credit. I'll do everything I can to help you, even if my barbers in Orange—the bums—to become my partners, while I'm away from my jail."

Local sports promoters at the dinner included Mel Hein, former center of the New York football Giants. Al Feldman, formerly prominent light heavy and heavyweight boxer; Pete Gutto, former lightweight boxer, and Pete Gardner, former light heavyweight wrestling champion. Everyone regretted that Billy Petros was unable to attend. Petros—the old "Fargo Express" of the ring—was raised in Schenectady. All four top officials of the D.D.'s said they would try intensively to get a major league club interested in establishing a farm team at Schenectady. Those officials are: John "Curly" Roth, president; Hank Schulz, V.P.; Danny Markey, treasurer; and Al "Gunner" DeSantis, secretary. The Schenectady Over-Star newspaper.

Teachers' Wages In Three Areas Will Be Studied

An upward readjustment of teachers' salaries in three Alberta districts is being sought by sitting of boards of arbitration either appointed or pending appointment. It was learned here Tuesday.

Next week, probably at Ponoka, the board of arbitration for approximately 14 teachers will be under review by a provincial board of arbitration chaired by Judge Joseph McLean.

A. Nankervis, Thurlford, will represent the Ponoka school board, while J. W. Barrett, secretary of the Alberta Teachers' Association, will represent the teachers.

DISSENT
Teachers at Ponoka have been dissatisfied for some time with present salary schedules which they claim are below necessary to maintain a fair standard of living.

At Bashaw, proceedings before a board of arbitration have been held in the death of one of the officials concerned. This dispute concerning teachers' salaries has been going on for nearly four years.

Wainwright is the other district where a board is likely to be sitting shortly. Mail building is now going on among the teachers to select their representative, as required under the Alberta Industrial Disputes Act.
